This one semester course provides a foundation in various media including image editing, desktop publishing, audio and video production, animation, and social media. Students will use creative design skills to develop individual and team projects. Time management will be essential to success. Final evaluation includes an electronic portfolio.

UNITS OF STUDY:

Digital Citizenship/Social Media

Units are structured so that each student works independently or with small groups. Students will be expected to meet daily goals and deadlines. Class time will be divided between demonstrations, tutorials, guided practice and project assignments. The class will be as real world as possible with deadlines, multitasking, interruptions, changes, additions, problem solving technical difficulties, etc. Students should expect to incorporate organization and time management skills in order to meet assignment deadlines.

MAJOR ASSIGNMENTS AND PROJECTS:

A major project is required at the end of each unit of study to demonstrate understanding of the course material. As part of the final, an online portfolio of all projects is required.

GRADING POLICY:

Daily assignments, projects, tests and quizzes will account for 90% of the grade. The final will count as 10% of the final grade. Student grades are available on Tyler SIS. There is also a link from the school homepage. Updates are made after project deadlines and/or weekly.

MELO/PRIVATE DINING:

Students are encouraged to come in to make-up work and for additional assistance. If a student is struggling with the material or needs additional time to complete a project, the teacher may assign the student to Mandatory Extra Learning Opportunity (MELO). The teacher will work with the student and parents for a convenient time. Students with missing assignments or incomplete projects will be assigned to a week of Private Dining the following week. Private Dining is a “working lunch,” made up of the 52 minute period through lunch and Cat Time. Once assigned to Private Dining, the student will remain there for the entire week.

MAKE UP WORK POLICY:

The student handbook policy will be followed for makeup work on daily assignments. Students are responsible for all makeup work and should make arrangements the day they return to class. One class day for make-up will be allowed for each class day missed. For extended circumstances, please call or email the instructor to make arrangements.
